1. Progress Report on Tasks Assigned by the DCI/DDCI:

No tasks assigned during this reporting period.

2. Items or Events of Major Interest That Have Occurred During the Preceding Week:

~~Document Interface~~ with ~~the~~ Professional Society:
 a. ~~Completed~~ Preceding Week: C/PMS/OL, []

spoke to the Middle Maryland chapter of the National Contract Management Association (NCMA). The presentation was made to about forty NCMA members. Questions and answers at the end of the presentation dealt with "getting in the door to present capabilities" and CIA's FOCI policy. The talk seemed to be very well received. []

b. Completed within the Next Reporting Period: An Agency Contract Review Board meeting is scheduled for the afternoon of 21 November with seven cases scheduled to be heard. []

c. ~~Major Problems~~ ^{FOCI Review} ~~Action/Solution~~: The Agency FOCI Review Panel is enforcing the policy set forth in [] entitled "Contracting With Organizations Subject to Foreign Ownership, Control or Influence." It is turning down procurements from firms subject to FOCI and the number of requests to the DDA for waiver is expected to increase. While the number of waiver requests is not yet epidemic, the Panel is re-examining the policy and will make recommendations for changes which it considers necessary. []

3. Significant Events Anticipated During the Coming Week:

None
